PRELUDE

CALL TO WORSHIP

Praise God, the Artist of creation,
Who holds heaven and earth in a single peace.

In God we live and move and have our being;
it is the Lord who gives us life and breath.

Though illness invades the world,
God has kept us among the living.

God formed all people to seek and know Love;
Bless our God, who is faithful, and is near.

OPENING HYMN GTG 19 God of Great and God of Small

CALL TO CONFESSION

The Spirit of God helps us in our weakness, interceding with sighs too deep for words.
Trusting in God's grace, let us confess our sin.

CONFESSION

"If you love me, you will keep my commandments," you said.
And you promised an Advocate and Comforter.
You were faithful to your promise.

But we have broken your law of love.

We have hoarded resources, rather than feeding your sheep.

We have stoked competition, rather than kneeling at others' feet.

We have kept silent, rather than testifying to our belief.

For not showing our love for you by loving one another, forgive us.
Help us obey your commandments and keep us always faithful to your Word, by the power of your indwelling Spirit, who is with us and among us always.

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

Hear the good news of God's promise: I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh. Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven! Know that you are forgiven and be at peace.

Thanks be to God.

LISTENING FOR GOD'S WORD

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

Living God, with joy we celebrate the presence of your risen Word. Enliven our hearts by your Holy Spirit so that we may proclaim the good news of eternal and abundant life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

SCRIPTURE READING Acts 17:22-31

Then Paul stood in front of the Areopagus and said, "Athenians, I see how extremely religious you are in every way. For as I went through the city and looked carefully at the objects of your worship, I found among them an altar with the inscription, 'To an unknown god.' What therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you. The God who made the world and everything in it, he who is Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in shrines made by human hands, nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all mortals life and breath and all things. From one ancestor he made all nations to inhabit the whole earth, and he allotted the times of their existence and the boundaries of the places where they would live, so that they would search for God and perhaps grope for him and find him—though indeed he is not far from each one of us. For 'In him we live and move and have our being'; as even some of your own poets have said,

'For we too are his offspring.'

Since we are God's offspring, we ought not to think that the deity is like gold, or silver, or stone, an image formed by the art and imagination of mortals. While God has overlooked the times of human ignorance, now he commands all people everywhere to repent, because he has fixed a day on which he will have the world judged in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead."

RESPONSIVE READING

Psalm 66:8-20

(adapted from Psalms for Praying, Nan Merrill)

Blessed be the Beloved, the Heart of our hearts,
You keep us attuned to life and guide our feet on solid ground.

For you have tested us; you have tried us as silver is tried;

You allowed us to fall into the net.

You allowed us to reap all that we have sown;
we went through fire and water

Yet you have brought us through our pain and into your presence..

I surrender to Love, and put my soul in your keeping,

All that I promised when I was in trouble and pain, I offer to you.

If I had cherished greed and power, I would have lost sight of you,

But you heard the voice of my prayer.

Blessed be the Comforter, the loving companion

Who embraces me and renews my life.

SCRIPTURE READING

1 Peter 8-9, 13-16

Finally, all of you, have unity of spirit, sympathy, love for one another, a tender heart, and a humble mind. Do not repay evil for evil or abuse for abuse; but, on the contrary, repay with a blessing. It is for this that you were called—that you might inherit a blessing.... Now who will harm you if you are eager to do what is good? Even if you suffer for doing what is right, you are blessed. Do not fear what others fear, and do not be intimidated, but in your hearts sanctify Christ as Lord. Always be ready to make your defense to anyone who demands from you an accounting for the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and reverence.

GOSPEL READING

John 14:15-21

“If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you forever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you.

“I will not leave you orphaned; I am coming to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me; because I live, you also will live. On that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. They who have my commandments and keep them are those who love me; and those who love me will be loved by my Father, and I will love them and reveal myself to them.”

This is the good news which we have received, in which we stand, and by which we are saved.

Thanks be to God.
