GATHERING AROUND THE WORD OF GOD

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRELUDE

CALL TO WORSHIP

In the beginning, God created the world, and God blessed it: "It is good."

In the beginning, God created light, and God blessed it: "It is good."

In the beginning, God created life, and God blessed it: "It is good."

Since the beginning, God has not stopped creating, calling us closer to all that is good.

CALL TO CONFESSION

Nothing can be hidden from our God, maker of heaven and earth, whose wisdom is endless, whose mercy is great.
Trusting in God's grace, let us confess our sin.

CONFESSION

God whose spirit moved over the waters,
you claimed us as your own, bound us in community,
and called us to lives steeped in grace.

Forgive us, O God, for we have not lived as if we were your baptized people.

We prioritize our own selfish interests.
We are slow to disrupt the status quo,
even when it means ignoring our neighbors' suffering.

Forgive us, O God, and in forgiving, transform us.

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

Those who trust in the Holy Name will renew their strength.
They will run and not be weary, they will walk and not grow faint.
In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

Thanks be to God.

SCRIPTURE READING

Genesis 1:1-5

In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters.

Then God said, "Let there be light"; and there was light. And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

RESPONSIVE READING

Psalm 29

One Hebrew name for God for which we have no good translation, but which is commonly rendered LORD, occurs 18 times in this short psalm. When we hear a word that frequently, we can miss the power it originally held. For that reason, we speak it today in other words.

Ascribe to the Holy Name, you heavenly beings, ascribe to the Holy Name glory and strength.

Ascribe to the Holy Name the glory due the name of God;
worship the Holy Name in sacred splendor.

The voice of the Holy Name is over the waters;
the God of glory thunders, the Holy Name, over mighty waters.

The voice of the Holy Name is powerful;
the voice of the Holy Name is full of majesty.

The voice of the Holy Name breaks the cedars;
the Holy Name breaks the cedars of Lebanon.

God makes Lebanon skip like a calf, and Sirion like a young wild ox.
The voice of the Holy Name flashes forth flames of fire.

The voice of the Holy Name shakes the wilderness;
the Holy Name shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.

The voice of the Holy Name causes the oaks to whirl, and strips the forest bare; and in God's temple all cry, "Glory!"

The Holy Name sits enthroned over the flood;
the Holy Name sits enthroned as ruler forever.

May the Holy Name give strength to the people!
May the Holy Name bless the people with peace!

GOSPEL READING

Mark 1:4–11

John the baptizer appeared in the wilderness, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. And people from the whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem were going out to him, and were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. Now John was clothed with camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. He proclaimed, "The one who is more powerful than I is coming after me; I am not worthy to stoop down and untie the thong of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

In those days Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. And just as he was coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens torn apart and the Spirit descending like a dove on him. And a voice came from heaven, "You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased."

And the Word became flesh and lived among us. Thanks be to God.

About the Bible: Bible Study to begin Tuesday, January 19

The Bible is the backbone of our Christian faith, a chief source of our knowledge of God. But how much do we really know about the Bible itself? Who wrote it? And when? And why? How does it apply to life today?

Our winter/spring Bible study looks at these and other questions. Our primary resource is a book called About the Bible: Short Answers to Big Questions, by Terence Fretheim. We'll also take a look at passages used in our Sunday services.

Those interested will meet virtually, Tuesdays at 10 am, starting on January 19, for 10 weeks. Contact Pastor Jan if you're interested in joining this discussion.

Annual Meeting Sunday, January 31 following worship

On Sunday, January 31st, CPC will have its annual meeting following worship (about 10:30 am). Presently, the plan is to hold this meeting virtually - so just stay online after worship! If that should change, you will receive notification ahead of time. All members of CPC are invited and encouraged to attend!

Submissions for the Annual Report are due on Monday, January 18.

The Book Discussion Group will meet on Sunday, January 24 following worship (Just stay online after worship!). The group will be discussing Where the Crawdads Sing. All are welcome, whether they've read the book or not!

St. Luke's Episcopal and Calvary Episcopal churches of Rochester, MN invite us to join them in a zoom meeting, hosted by St. Luke's Episcopal, on Monday evening, January 11, at 7 p.m. The presenter will be Kathryn Lozada, ISIAAH's Southern Minnesota organizer. The meeting is to help our faith communities discern how we can continue the work against racism in our community.
