GATHERING AROUND THE WORD OF GOD

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRELUDE

CALL TO WORSHIP

We gather again during Lent to examine our hearts and our lives and journey with Christ through the suffering of the world.

Let us watch for the coming sign of God's power, the Beloved Son, a humble servant, lifted up on a cross for our healing.

God has marked us as beloved dust and called us together to worship.

What a friend we have in Jesus,
all our sins and griefs to bear!

What a privilege to carry everything to God in prayer!
O what peace we often forfeit;
O what needless pain we bear,
all because we do not carry
everything to God in prayer!

Have we trials and temptations?
Is there trouble anywhere?
We should never be discouraged;
take it to the Lord in prayer!
Can we find a friend so faithful
who will all our sorrows share?
Jesus knows our every weakness;
take it to the Lord in prayer!

CALL TO CONFESSION

In the name of Christ, I urge you:

Be reconciled to God. Trusting in God's grace, let us confess our sin.

CONFESSION

By your gift of grace we are saved from all that separates us from you.

Still, we would rather believe that we can earn your love.

Still, we would rather believe that we are in ultimate control.

Forgive us when we do not recognize the radical gift of your grace;
have mercy when we fail or refuse to share that grace with another.

Forgive us, O God, and wash us in your mercy.

Forgive us, O God, and free us to try again.

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

Listen, the time has come at last. Look, now is the day of salvation! In the name of Jesus Christ, we are forgiven!

Thanks be to God.

LISTENING FOR GOD'S WORD

SPECIAL MUSIC

It Is Well With My Soul

Words: Horatio G. Spafford, Music: Based on Ville Du Havre by Phillip Bliss

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

Merciful God, your Word is our way of truth and life. Create in us hearts that are clean and put your Holy Spirit within us, so that we may receive your grace and declare your praise forever; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

SCRIPTURE READING Numbers 21:4-9

On their 40-year journey from Egypt to the Promised Land of Canaan, the formerly enslaved Hebrew people found plenty to aggravate them. This strange story invites us into the mystery of the relationship between complaint and consequences, repentance and restoration, and God's part in both. It begs the question: how do humans influence God?

From Mount Hor they set out by the way to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom; but the people became impatient on the way. The people spoke against God and against Moses, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and we detest this miserable food." Then the Lord sent poisonous serpents among the people, and they bit the people, so that many Israelites died. The people came to Moses and said, "We have sinned by speaking against the Lord and against you; pray to the Lord to take away the serpents from us." So Moses prayed for the people. And the Lord said to Moses, "Make a poisonous serpent, and set it on a pole; and everyone who is bitten shall look at it and live." So Moses made a serpent of bronze, and put it upon a pole; and whenever a serpent bit someone, that person would look at the serpent of bronze and live.

RESPONSIVE READING Psalm 107:1-3, 17-22

Give thanks to the Most High, for God is good;
for the steadfast love of the Beloved endures forever:

Let those redeemed by the Righteous One say so!

Let those gathered in from the east and from the west,
from the north and from the south,
remember how they were saved from trouble:

Let those redeemed by the Righteous One say so!

Some were sick through their sinful ways,
and afflicted because of their iniquities;
they drew near to the gates of death.

Let those redeemed by the Righteous One say so!

Then they cried to the Almighty in their trouble,
and God saved them from their distress;
lifting up hope to heal and deliver them.

Let those redeemed by the Righteous One say so!

Let them give thanks for the Healer's steadfast love,
and wonderful works to humankind.
Let them sacrifice with thanksgiving and sound their praise in songs of joy.

Let those redeemed by the Righteous One say so!

SCRIPTURE READING      Ephesians 2:1-10

The writer of this letter sees humankind as dead in spirit until sin is recognized and the tasks of repentance and restoration begun. Most important, though: we don't initiate our own spiritual resurrection. This is God's gift:

By grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God— not the result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are what the Creator has made us, formed in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand to be our way of life.

GOSPEL READING      John 3:14-21

Jesus' act of civil disobedience in the Temple drew the attention of a Jewish leader named Nicodemus, who approached him secretly for answers. This is part of Jesus' response, and contains one of the best-known passages in the Bible.

And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Those who believe in him are not condemned; but those who do not believe are condemned already, because they have not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and people loved darkness rather than light because their deeds were evil. For all who do evil hate the light and do not come to the light, so that their deeds may not be exposed. But those who do what is true come to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that their deeds have been done in God.”

We proclaim Christ crucified - the wisdom and the power of God. Thanks be to God.

A Blue Sky Conversation will happen again today, continuing the thoughts on: "What's in our spiritual DNA as a congregation? How does this work its way into the world?" Anyone affiliated with CPC is encouraged to attend, whether or not you've been present for past conversations. We'll try to end promptly at 11:15.

An intergenerational outdoor activity is tentatively being planned for Sunday afternoon, March 21, at Quarry Hill.

Final plans will depend on the weather, but if you might be interested in participating, please contact Amanda Ross, Sue Chipman, Pastor Jan or leave a message at the church office. This will assist planners in their preparations.

BOOK DISCUSSION GROUP

The Book Discussion Group will meet on Sunday, March 28 at 10:30 am (after worship) to discuss Where Men Win Glory by Jon Krakauer. Read this interesting book and join in the discussion!

“A stunning account of a remarkable young man's [Pat Tillman's] heroic life and death, from the bestselling author of Into the Wild, Into Thin Air, and Under the Banner of Heaven.”
