SCRIPTURE READING

Acts 8:26–40

The author, Luke, relates a colorful and almost magical story of the early church. Notice how the Spirit works through Philip, who has fled to Samaria to escape persecution in Jerusalem.

Then an angel of the Lord said to Philip, “Get up and go toward the south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza.” (This is a wilderness road.) So he got up and went. Now there was an Ethiopian eunuch, a court official of the Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, in charge of her entire treasury. He had come to Jerusalem to worship and was returning home; seated in his chariot, he was reading the prophet Isaiah. Then the Spirit said to Philip, “Go over to this chariot and join it.” So Philip ran up to it and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah. He asked, “Do you understand what you are reading?” He replied, “How can I, unless someone guides me?” And he invited Philip to get in and sit beside him. Now the passage of the scripture that he was reading was this: “Like a sheep he was led to the slaughter, and like a lamb silent before its shearer, so he does not open his mouth. In his humiliation justice was denied him. Who can describe his generation? For his life is taken away from the earth.” The eunuch asked Philip, “About whom, may I ask you, does the prophet say this, about himself or about someone else?” Then Philip began to speak, and starting with this scripture, he proclaimed to him the good news about Jesus. As they were going along the road, they came to some water; and the eunuch said, “Look, here is water! What is to prevent me from being baptized?” He commanded the chariot to stop, and both of them, Philip and the eunuch, went down into the water, and Philip baptized him. When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away; the eunuch saw him no more, and went on his way rejoicing. But Philip found himself at Azotus, and as he was passing through the region, he proclaimed the good news to all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

RESPONSIVE READING

Psalm 22:25-31

To you, Beloved, I lift my voice in the great congregation;

I fulfill my promises to you in the presence of your people.

The hungry shall eat and be satisfied;

those who seek you shall sing your praises.

You have become our dwelling place forever.

All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to Love's way;

all families and the nations will worship before you.

For power and authority are yours; you rule over all.

The proud of the earth shall be humbled,

those who live in fear and illusions separate themselves from you;

But those who abide in you have peace within.

Posterity will know and walk in the way of Love;

And tell future generations of the One who abides in all.

A people yet unborn will proclaim that the Most High dwells among us.

SCRIPTURE READING

1 John 4:7-21

Once again, John reminds us that God's love lies at the heart of all faith, and at the heart of all life.

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is from God; everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love.... God is love, and those who abide in love abide in God, and God abides in them. Love has been perfected among us in this: that we may have boldness on the day of judgment, because as he is, so are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear; for fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not reached perfection in love. We love because he first loved us.

GOSPEL READING

John 15:1-8

We hear this text a full month after Easter. According to John, Jesus spoke these words to his disciples the night before he died. Does timing affect how you hear them?

”I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinegrower. He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit. You have already been cleansed by the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me as I abide in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing. Whoever does not abide in me is thrown away like a branch and withers; such branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask for whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples.”

This is the good news which we have received, in which we stand, and by which we are saved. Thanks be to God.
