LISTENING FOR GOD'S WORD

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

O God, your word is light on our path; you open your truth to all who receive it with trusting hearts. As you reveal yourself to children, speak now to us: simply, lovingly, clearly, so that we may hear and follow. In your Name, Amen

SCRIPTURE READING

Isaiah 11:1-9

This text is often referred to as "the peaceable kingdom;" notably, it's a child who leads the way to that place. It's also often used to celebrate the blessing of the animals on the Feast of St. Francis, which occurs every year on October 4.

A shoot shall come out from the stump of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots. The spirit of the Lord shall rest on him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord. His delight shall be in the fear of the Lord. He shall not judge by what his eyes see, or decide by what his ears hear; but with righteousness he shall judge the poor, and decide with equity for the meek of the earth; he shall strike the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he shall kill the wicked. Righteousness shall be the belt around his waist, and faithfulness the belt around his loins. The wolf shall live with the lamb, the leopard shall lie down with the kid, the calf and the lion and the fatling together, and a little child shall lead them. The cow and the bear shall graze, their young shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. The nursing child shall play over the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put its hand on the adder's den. They will not hurt or destroy on all my holy mountain; for the earth will be full of the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea.

RESPONSIVE READING

Psalm 8

O God, our Beloved, how majestic is your name in all the earth!
You have set your glory above the heavens.

Out of the mouths of babes and infants you have ordained praise, to silence the enemy and the avenger.

When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars that you have established;
what are human beings that you are mindful of them,
mere mortals that you care for them?

Yet you have made them a little lower than God,
and crowned them with glory and honor.
You have given them the care of the works of your hands;
you have put all things under their feet,

All sheep and oxen, and also the beasts of the field,
the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea,
whatever passes along the paths of the seas.
O God, our Beloved, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

GOSPEL READING Mark 9:38-42, 10:13-16

Just prior to the events in this passage, the disciples tried to cast the demon out of a young boy, and failed. Then Jesus cautioned them not to strive to be superior to others, but to serve them. Even after his warning, are they still stubbornly heading down that path, seeing themselves as greater? Again, he reminds them, a child will lead the way.

John said to him, “Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he was not following us.” But Jesus said, “Do not stop him; for no one who does a deed of power in my name will be able soon afterward to speak evil of me. Whoever is not against us is for us. For truly I tell you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you bear the name of Christ will by no means lose the reward. If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones who believe in me, it would be better for you if a great millstone were hung around your neck and you were thrown into the sea.”

People were bringing little children to him in order that he might touch them; and the disciples spoke sternly to them. But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, “Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it.” And he took them up in his arms, laid his hands on them, and blessed them.

Keep these words in your heart. The Lord is our God, the Lord alone.

Thanks be to God.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;

Look at your hands, see the touch and the tenderness;
 Look at your feet, see the path and the direction;
 Look at your heart, see the fire and the love;
 Look at the cross; see God's Son and our Savior. This is God's world,
And we will serve God in it.

Jesus said, "I am with you always." May God the Creator bless you,
 May God the Son walk with you, May God the Spirit lead your lives with love.

Amen
