Pastoral Report Rev. Jan Wiersma

In these bleak midwinter days, I long for green growth. I put my trust in the seeds bedded down in frozen soil and the trees' embryonic buds biding their time under a shield of ice. I am reminded of God's faithfulness, that all we need has already been provided. Our spiritual soil has been seeded with everything we need for the future. Seeds are the essence of past fruit, containing the germ of future life that replicates what has gone before, but improves upon it, too, adapting to changing conditions.

With that in mind, I visualize the seeds scattered and sown as a result of this past year's work:

- Adapting and improving our hybrid worship thanks to volunteers who are technologically, artistically, and musically gifted, as well as a grant from the Presbytery. I think of the tangible fruit of one Sunday in March when we prayed in music and poetry while Carole Copeland produced the beautiful work of art that now hangs in our narthex.
- Cultivating curiosity and care for those who share our vision of God at work in the world through practices that differ from our own: inviting Fifth Sunday speakers from Muslim, Quaker, and LDS (Mormon) traditions; and welcoming Labranza de Dios, a Spanish-language Pentecostal congregation, as regular renters.
- Enhancing personal connections with our Rochester partners in ministry: the July 16th Ice Cream Social drew leaders and participants from Gage East Apartments, the Village Agricultural Cooperative, and LifeGate services. Our roots deepen and our networks widen through these relationships.
- Maintaining ties to the PTCA through participation in a presbytery-wide virtual choir and anti-racism work.
- The only loss to death, our dear Margaret Nelson, has enriched us spiritually as her bequest prompted a closer look at how we might provide material assistance to those in need in our community. All the projects submitted for consideration gave us a more profound awareness of the work being done all around us. We are part of that work!
- Solid planning by Session and committees, focusing on streamlining activity to minimize busywork, attend to real needs, and build community. Committees have worked together to brainstorm ideas and bring them to life.

I am grateful for the growth and stimulation my years with you have provided for me personally: for the silent retreats to seek God's purpose for CPC here and now; for the continuing education experiences prompting a hard look at the global church of the future, revisioning what it means to be followers of Jesus Christ in a changing and bewildering world. I am grateful for the stubborn necessity of reaching inward and outward to try to speak with authenticity Sunday after Sunday.

I am grateful for your responsiveness to all of these questions.

What I think of Community Presbyterian Church, though, is less important than what others see in us. As I pondered the developments of the last year, different comments from a variety of observers came to mind:

- From the beginning, CPC has had strong and forward-thinking lay leadership;
- Your first pastor, Lyle Rozeboom, knit people into an energetic and caring community that looked to the future rather than dwelling on the past;
- What I see in CPC is their strong devotion to mission, to caring for others;
- This congregation is full of hidden gems, people with untapped gifts;
- CPC is a feisty and fearless group of believers, unafraid to question, change, and look outside themselves to grace the Rochester community with their faith and work.

These are the kinds of seeds that have been planted, not just in 2022 but since your founding. Have no fear. All you need is already waiting in the soil. Amen.

Building and Grounds Committee

Gene Kopecky, Chairperson

Committee Members: Ed Burgstaler, Bill Marshall, Mark Pillers, Lyal Powell, Carole Kinion-Copeland, Pastor Jan Wiersma, and Gene Kopecky-Chair.

Though 2022 had its trials and tribulations. The building and Grounds members' spirit is still as strong as ever. The B & G committee accomplished these key projects this past year.

2022 projects were:

- The continuation of our relationship with CPNS.
- The eastern sidewalk was repaired by American Waterworks.
- Our lawn maintenance & snow removal (B&B lawn care) contract was renegotiated & renewed for 2022/23.
- Fall & spring clean-up was completed.
- A video system was enhanced to facilitate our on-line presence.
- The community gardens and the Garden of Life are still productive and strong.
- Various plumbing repairs, fire suppression and alarm system maintenance, & door repair.
- The carpets were cleaned.
- The five furnaces were maintained and repaired by Tonna mechanical.
- Rodent control was accomplished by Bob the Bug Man.
- A dead tree by the community garden was removed.
- The light illuminating the cross on the roof was replaced.
- Replaced door and frame in the northwest classroom.
- Gutters installed above main entrances.
- Supported increased rental use of the building.
- Fencing installed to corral the recycling.
- Replaced lights in our main sign.
- Updated phone system.
- Replaced damaged tiles in the kitchen.

Future 2023 initiatives:

- Negotiate a new lawn and snow removal contract.
- Continued maintenance of building.
- Build secure storage for CPC's supplies.
- Re-evaluate our trash receptacle situation to try and eliminate random dumping.
- New main entrance signage.

Though the work is never done, an enormous thank you to an ever-busy Building & Grounds committee for a job well done. I look forward to what we will accomplish in 2023.

Landscape and Garden Maintenance
(A subcommittee of Building & Grounds)
Carole Kinion Copeland

The following refers to the cost and care of the gardens and landscape maintenance of CPC. It includes the care of the Garden of Life, the landscape shrubs and trees, and the weed control of church gardens, paths and foundation plantings including the preschool playground area. It does not include lawn mowing.

Budget:

$2,200.00 was budgeted and $350.96 was spent for the 2022 landscape maintenance and additional line item for fall clean up was added ($250.00 allotted, $250.00 spent). Purchases included plant material, mulch, herbicide, and fertilizer. There were multiple trips to the brush dump. I did hire some help with several tasks and anticipate needing more assistance in the coming year.

Volunteer hours:

This past season there were 85 hours volunteered with approximately 11 volunteers contributing. In contrast, last year there were 135.5 hours volunteered with 26 volunteers contributing.

New Tree:

A new “Zestar!” apple tree was planted in honor of Pastor Jan.

Donations to the garden fund were made in honor of Margaret Nelson. A bench was purchased and placed by the main entrance of the church. There is a remaining balance tentatively earmarked to use on plant material near the proposed new north entrance sign.

Future needs:

Continued care and maintenance is necessary to maintaining the desired look of the gardens and landscape. A top dressing of mulch needs to be applied in the Garden of Life. Building and Grounds is proposing to replace the north entrance sign. This may include some landscape work.

I wish to thank all who donate time and money for the church gardens. A special thank you to the volunteers. Without your help and assistance, the gardens at CPC would not look as nice as they do.

Christian Education Committee
Sue Chipman, Chairperson

Members: Sue Chipman, Ron Murray, Amanda Ross, Jan Wiersma

This past year we were able to gather for a few different events, but caution was still necessary because of ongoing Covid, flu and RSV. Our new technology was installed and we did have an indoor movie, but attendance was limited. A 2nd movie was scheduled, but cancelled due to few people signing up. A group attended the music/pizza outing at Berne this last summer and all enjoyed both fun and fellowship.

We hope to provide confirmation classes for Tristan Bohl this spring and to confirm him before his family moves this summer. With added help from members of PWW the KIDZ Klub room was cleaned and sorted and unused materials were donated, recycled, thrown out, or kept for the use of LaBranza de Dios who rent the church for their worship.

Christian Education, going forward, will need to focus on adults until we have a new crop of members with children. We are hopeful we will attract more congregational involvement.

Book Discussion Group
(A subcommittee of Christian Education)
Gwen Riggin and Carol Jones

A small group of dedicated readers met throughout the program year to discuss books. As the titles indicate, choices engage compelling issues in some depth.

January: The Soul of America, by Jon Meacham
February: We're Better than This, by Elijah Cummings
March: Hitler's Forgotten Children, by Ingrid von Oelhafen and Tim Tate
May: Grandma Gatewood's Walk, by Ben Montgomery
Women in White Coats, by Olivia Campbell
September: The Book of Two Ways, by Jodi Picoult
October: Caste: The Origins of Our Discontents, by Isabel Wilkerson
December: A Christmas Blizzard, by Garrison Keillor
A Week in Winter, by Maeve Binchy.

Thanks to leaders Gwen Riggin (2021-22) and Carol Jones (2022-23).

Mission Committee

Sherrie Wilson, Chairperson

Members: Jennifer Hall, Ronda Marshall, Mark Neville, Ivy Pillers, Mary Alice Richardson and Sherrie Wilson.

The year 2022 began with the Mission Committee approving a new job description for itself. The committee's purpose is to "demonstrate the love of God by caring for those in need locally and globally."

Session approved Presbyterian special offerings:

One Great Hour of Sharing – Palm Sunday or Easter

Pentecost Offering

Peace and Global Witness Offering

Thank Offering (PW)

Christmas Joy Offering

Also, CPC contributed $2,150 toward the Ukraine special offering through Presbyterian Disaster Assistance to help those under attack. The committee approved an additional $500 for Ukraine. Later, the committee donated $500 for disaster relief in Puerto Rico.

CPC participated in the Peace and Global Witness Offering, and 25 percent can be used for local ministries. Southeastern Minnesota Interfaith Immigration Legal Defense received a donation.

The Pentecost Offering was $325 with 40 percent ($130) donated to Project Legacy in Rochester.

When Ivy Pillers and Ronda Marshall taught English to Polish and Ukrainian refugee children in Poland last summer, the Mission Committee contributed $1,000 toward tablets for the children.

Local missions supported are LifeGate Services, Gage East Apartments and the Village Agricultural Cooperative, among others. CPC donated $500 to the Village. LifeGate Services received $1,500 for its Open Your Heart Summer Challenge.

In July, the Mission and Christian Education committees sponsored an ice cream social, so mission partners could become better acquainted. At Christmas time, the committee raised money to buy such items as toothpaste and shampoo to distribute to young adults at Gage East Apartments. Karen Atkinson sewed gift bags for the project.

At the end of 2022, the Mission Committee allocated $620 each to:

The Reading Center

Channel One Regional Food Bank and Food Shelf

Gage East library and bookshelves

Additionally, $695 has been donated by individuals toward the purchase of library books; some books have also been donated.

Nominating Committee at large members for 2023

Mark Neville, Bruce Felger, Dave Copeland, and Mary Alice Richardson

Financial Secretary for 2023 – appointed by Session Mark Pillers

Treasurer for 2023 - elected by Session Joanne Powell

Nominating Committee Deacon Rep - Margie Petersen

Personnel Committee
Amanda Ross, Chairperson

Members: Jane Burgstaler, Ronda Marshall, Mary Alice Richardson, Sherrie Wilson and Dave Copeland.

The main work of the Personnel Committee in 2022 started with tasks related to working with the Presbytery, Session, and Pastor Jan Wiersma to enter into a third contractual agreement for her to serve CPC as a part time Stated Supply Pastor. CPC and Jan formalized our relationship in late May, and Jan began working with us under her third one-year contract on June 1st. The Personnel Committee has received many positive comments from the congregation, and we believe Pastor Jan has been a blessing to us as she performs her pastoral duties. With the joy of Pastor Jan leading us for one more year, she also has given us her notice that this will be her last contract. She will be done as Stated Supply Pastor at the end of May 2023. We are blessed to have her with us to guide us to a New Year and towards the New Leadership of CPC.

With this news our committee worked to get guidance from the Presbytery on what is our next step, to which the Presbytery instructed us to wait - do not do anything until 5 months before her end of term. Here we are: our group has asked Session to appoint a Pastor Nominating Committee. This group is in the process of being formed and will begin discussions soon. As we look towards the future, I ask that you be patient, live in the moment, and reflect on what is CPC. Enjoy what we have at CPC: the beautiful services, the people, the mission work. We have been guided by Pastor Jan these last 2 years and 7 months, she has helped us through some rough times to say the least. We now have 5 more months to enjoy her leadership and also help her guide us to what is next for CPC.

The Personnel Committee believes our staff members are an invaluable asset to our congregation. We are truly blessed to have Pastor Jan as Stated Pastor, Meg Cain as choir director, Glenna Muir as accompanist, Judy Kereakos as handbell director, Stephanie Pasch as administrative assistant, and Nancy Sanford as custodian. These individuals all help to make CPC the wonderful place it is and keep it running so smoothly. This year we will not have wages increased at this time but plan to have that reviewed if the budget can support it.

In December, the Personnel Committee once again asked for donations from the congregation to support Christmas gifts for our staff. The response was overwhelmingly generous, and the staff gifts were distributed just before Christmas. We have received sincere thanks from the staff.

CPC Choir Meg Cain, Director

CPC Choir was in full swing this past year singing regularly in worship successfully tackling beautiful, varied, meaningful, and increasingly complex repertoire. Throughout the year we rehearsed carefully while wearing masks and this fall as the COVID numbers decreased, the decision was made to allow all masks to be optional. What a difference to finally see the smiles on faces as we came together to sing! I am extremely grateful for the dedication and consistency of all those who sing in the choir.

Our choir was able to create a Virtual Choir again presented during the worship service after Christmas. Each singer recorded themselves singing to a video with cues and piano accompaniment of Infant Holy, Infant Lowly. These separate videos were then balanced together beautifully and creatively to combine everyone into one magically united choir video!

This year we are thrilled to welcome Nellie to the choir! Her lyrical voice and pure tone have enhanced our ensemble both socially and vocally.

The 2022 Choir members include:

Sopranos: Sue Chipman, Nellie B & Rev. Jan Wiersma

Altos: Carole Copeland & Ivy Pillers

Baritones: Bruce Felger & Mark Neville

The choir is fortunate to work with outstanding piano accompanists adding dimension to the choral and worship experience. The talented pianists this past year included: Glenna Muir and Judy Kereakos. Our church is truly blessed with talented pianists sharing their gifts during worship each week.

Two new pieces were added to the choral library:

-Lord, I Know I Been Changed: by Larry Shackley. This lively arrangement of a traditional spiritual is a must for our choral library. The accompaniment creates a mood of quiet exhilaration with a soulful combination of chords and rhythmic patterns, and call-and-response vocal parts suggest a choir of angels.

-Veni, Veni Emmanuel: by Michael John Trotta. A rhythmic ostinato on “Veni, Veni” infused the traditional Advent carol with such unrelenting energy, the effect on the listener was mesmerizing! Detailed performance notes give fascinating historical perspective to the work, which was sung in Latin throughout. The unique take on the ancient carol was an exhilarating a cappella highlight of our Advent season.

Thank you to the worship and music committee members, congregation and all who support our music program.

Looking forward to what 2023 has to offer.

Jubellation Handbell Choir

Judy Kereakos,
Handbell Director

The Jubellation Bell Choir contributed to the Sunday service on March 20, 2022 during Lent when we rang “When I Survey the Wondrous Cross”. On Sunday, April 17, Easter Sunday, we rang a descant for the hymn, “Christ is Alive”. Most recently during Advent on Sunday, December 18, “O Come, O Come, Emmanuel” was rung as special music. We continue to have 8 or 9 devoted and talented musicians in our choir.

Deacons

Peggy McCarty, Chair

Class of 2022- Ron Murray and Kari Streff

Class of 2023- Peggy McCarty and Margie Petersen

Class of 2024- Dave Copeland and Aaron Simms

The deacon’s duties include preparing and serving communion each first Sunday of the month as well as visiting members as needed/requested by the pastor or member.

The board generally meets every even month or as needed, either in person or by email. At the August meeting, Peggy McCarty was elected chair for 2022.

Presbyterian Women

Mary Alice Richardson and Margaret Petersen, Co-leaders

During 2022, Pastor Jan led the PWW in Bible Study. The first part of the year was What My Grandmothers Taught Me. The second part of the year, we began Celebrating Sabbath. Both studies are most enlightening and help each of us to develop and enhance our faith.

In November, we led the Thankoffering Service. We were honored to have Amanda Nigon-Crowley who is the Director of Village Agricultural Cooperative. CPC’s community gardens are part of this exciting endeavor to help alleviate food insecurity and grow culturally relevant food, among many other means of meeting community needs.

In December, we held a Christmas Tea with many in attendance. It was an afternoon full of Christmas joy and good food and good times, finishing off with a impressive white elephant gift exchange.

Margaret Nelson Bequest - Ad hoc Committee

Pastor Jan Wiersma, Chairperson

Community Presbyterian received a substantial sum from the trust of member Margaret Nelson, who died on March 26, 2022.

A check in the amount of $450,000 was received in June. After payment of taxes owed on the estate, the church may receive a much less significant amount in 2023.

The entire sum was initially placed in a savings account set up for the purpose at Think Bank while Session deliberated on the best use of the funds. As a first step, the decision was made to give away a tithe, or 10%, to a cause in need in our community.

A small group of people, the “Mission Prayer Group,” met bi-weekly through the fall to pray for guidance. Session also appointed an ad hoc committee, labeled the “3M committee” (Margaret’s Mission Money) to consider disbursement of the $45,000 tithe. Serving on that committee were Sue Chipman, Bonnie Kinion, Mark Neville, Ivy Pillers, Mary Alice Richardson, Aaron Simms, and Sherrie Wilson.

This group invited four local organizations whose work aligns with Margaret’s interests to submit project proposals. Just before Christmas, $40,000 was awarded to The Women’s Shelter and Support Center for purchase of a safe and reliable van to transport clients. Gage East Apartments also received $5,000. Margaret initiated our involvement with that organization during COVID.

In late fall, Session appointed another ad hoc group, the “Investment and Use Committee,” comprised of six members: Mark Pillers, convener; Stacy Kopecky, Mark Neville, Margaret Petersen, Mary Alice Richardson, and Cal Ward. The committee began meeting in late fall.

Discussion is ongoing. The thinking so far is that the greater portion of the remaining $405,000 (plus a small amount of interest) should be invested but that some of the principal should be available for immediate use as needed. Committee members are tasked with research. Information will be forthcoming as decisions are made. Suggestions and comments are welcome.

All involved expressed great gratitude for Margaret’s generosity and her foresight in refraining from designating any specific purpose for the funds. Discussion has proceeded with enthusiasm, thoughtfulness, and foresight, and consensus has been reached swiftly in every case.

As a congregation, we give thanks for this wonderful gift and for God’s guidance in furthering our mission. Each member of the three groups has shown deep faithfulness and a commitment to using the gift in a way that best proclaims God’s love to the world around us.
