

Job Description

Position	Worship Arts Leader
Reports to	Personnel Committee
Hours	15 hours/week (may vary week to week based on liturgical season)
Pay	Commensurate with experience

General Summary

This individual would be CPC's lead arts individual.

Job responsibilities

1. Conduct choirs for routine performance at church/other settings - vocal/bell-chime choirs
 - a. Typically 3-4 one hours/month practices Wednesday evenings during school year for vocal choir. Plan preparation beforehand, likely an additional hour.
 - b. Early rehearsal (1/2 hour) before worship service
 - c. Bell/chime choir – 2-3 performances per year (more is possible) with 3-4 one hour rehearsals beforehand
2. Network/schedule guest musicians/singers for summer but also during the school year to fill in at other Worship Services (approximately 1 per month)
3. Attend Worship & Music committee meetings (typically 1-1.5 hours every other month)
4. Work with pastor to Develop other worship art options including but not limited to:
 - a. Reader's theaters/theater/skits for worship service
 - b. Dance
 - c. Visual art experiences
 - d. Use of videos for worship – for special music or other worship experience
5. Optional, depending on interest, training, and theological awareness re: liturgical season and CPC mission Plan/lead a minimum of 1-2 worship services/every 2 months (minimum 6/year)

Other potential options to explore

1. Talent show
2. Outreach art experiences in conjunction with mission outreach group

Qualifications/Training

Education: Background of Christian understanding or use of the arts as a primary lens to spread the gospel/Christian method or Music/Arts Major or Minor (could be in process)

Experience: Experience with all ages

Performance experience (personal or directing)

Skills: Musical skills are essential for this role (vocal and/or instrumental), Leading large group, coordinating, people interaction skills

Signature: (employee)

Signature: (employer)